

What Is The HOA ?

Our HOA was formed On March 8, 1988

The purpose of the HOA is to:

Promote the quality and enjoyment of life for Buttonwood Bay residents.

Establish effective communications between the HOA and Park Management and the Park Owners.

Represent the concerns of Buttonwood Bay residents with issues related to park management with a goal to seek amicable solutions.

Promote the improvement of services and maintenance for park residents and the environs.

Ensure continued compliance with all local state and federal laws.

Aid in negotiation and in understanding compliance of policies and guidelines as prescribed by Buttonwood Bay Management.

There are 2 meetings per month during the Months of Oct.-April, The Board of Directors meets on the 1st Tuesday of the Month, while the BOD meeting is open to the HOA members, the main purpose of the meeting is for the Board to meet and discuss Business and plan for the General Membership Meeting.
